COURSE V
CLINIC IV: LITIGATION ADVOCACY AND INTERNSHIP

Objectives:

This course is designed to hone advocacy skills in the students. Moot Courts are simulation exercises geared up to endow students with facility in preparation of written submissions and planning, organising and marshalling arguments in the given time so as to convince the presiding officer.

The students should familiarize themselves with the various stages of trial in civil and criminal cases. They should be exposed to real court experience. Further they should imbibe the skills of client interviewing. This component may be planned to be part of the internship. Each student enrolled in 3 year course shall undergo an internship for minimum 12 weeks (20 weeks for 5 year LL.B. course) during the entire course under NGO, trial and appellate advocates, legal regulatory authorities, legislatures and parliament, other legal functionaries, market institutions, law firms, companies, local self government and other such bodies. However, the internship shall not be for a period of more than four weeks continuously in an academic year.

Litigation Advocacy

Moot Courts: Every student shall do at least 3 moot courts in the semester with 10 marks each. Each moot court shall be on an assigned problem and it shall be evaluated for 5 marks for written submission and 5 marks for oral advocacy. Total : 30 Marks.

The Clinical Evaluation Committee shall evaluate two moot courts at the end of the semester, one for civil problem and another for criminal problem, for 20 marks.

Client's interview and Counselling: The student shall attend court proceedings for at least three days in a week. Each student shall maintain a record, and enter the various steps observed during their attendance on different days in the court assignment. The course teacher shall evaluate this record for a maximum of 25 marks.

Litigation Planning, Investigation and Strategy: Each student shall observe the interviewing sessions of events when they visit the Chambers of Advocates or legal aid offices and shall record the proceedings in a diary. The course teacher shall evaluate this record for a maximum of 10 marks. The student shall also observe the preparation of documents and court papers by the advocate and the procedure for filing of the suit or petition and record this. The course teacher shall evaluate this record for a maximum of 15 marks.
