

JSS LAW COLLEGE

Autonomous

MYSORE

CERTIFICATE COURSE ON MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE AND FORENSIC SCIENCE

I Introduction to Forensic Science

- Documents
- Forensic Science and Crimes
- Ballistic Experts Evidence in Criminal Trials
- Finger Prints
- Ballistics

II Forensic Medicine

- List of offences and professional Misconduct (Indian Medical Council)
- Medical Records and Law
- Documents
- Medical Negligence – Criminal Liability of the Doctors
- Toxicology in Homicide cases
- DNA Test – A Forensic Boon
- Medical Evidence and the medical witness
- Medico legal aspects of some sexual offences
- Odontology and photographic superimposition
- Poisons
- Medico legal aspects of Insanity
- Commercialization of Human Organs
- Forensic Medicine – A brief introduction
- The value of medical experts evidence
- Medicine and Human Rights
- Personal Identification
- Asphyxial Deaths, Suffocation, Hanging and Strangulation
- Medico Legal aspects of death
- Medico legal aspects of injuries
- Injuries from Physical agents

III General Medicine and Law

- Legal aspects of issuing medical certificates
- Consent in medical care
- Identification through dentistry
- Health and Human Rights
- Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act, 1971
- Consumer Protection Act and the Medical Profession
- The Right to Abortion

IV Medical Negligence

- Ambit of Negligence
- Can a Hospital or Doctor refuse medical treatment?
- The Bio Medical Waste Rules, 1998
- Medicine and Public Health
- Doctors and Relevant Laws

V Cyber Law and related aspects

- Computer Crime
- Cyber Crime and the medical profession
- Evolution of Dying Declaration
- Consumer cases

VI Projects

1. Visit to the DNA Laboratory (ASI – Bogadi)
2. Visit to the Regional Forensic Science Laboratory
3. Visit to the Karnataka Police Academy
4. Visit to the Mortuary
5. Visit to the Law Courts

Reports to be submitted on the visits made.